ARTICLE VI--STANDING

Section I Good Standing

A full member fraternity that satisfies Article IV, Section IV and an associate member fraternity that satisfies Article V, Section IV is considered to be in good standing with IFC.

Section II Loss of Good Standing

A full member may lose its good standing with IFC if it is found guilty of violating any part of Article IV, Section IV. An associate member may lose its good standing with IFC if it is found guilty of violating any part of Article V, Section IV by both the Executive board and the Greek Life Office.

Section III Consequences of Loss of Good Standing

In accordance with the IFC Constitution, a full member or associate member fraternity can be expelled from IFC. It may lose some or all of its privileges, or be sanctioned as follows by this Constitution, if for any reason it fails to act in good standing with the University or with IFC.

Section IV Possible Sanctions for Loss of Good Standing

Probation: This may include, but not be limited to, the following: prohibition from holding social functions, recruitment functions, and participation in any or all IFC related events.

Temporary removal: The fraternity in question may be temporarily removed from the General Body of IFC upon recommendation of the Director of Greek Life or upon a majority vote of the General Body of IFC.

Permanent Removal: The fraternity in question may be removed permanently from IFC if repeated violations of this Constitution or of local, state, or federal laws occur.

ARTICLE VII--ORGANIZATION

Section I The officers of IFC shall consist of the President, Vice-President, Vice-President of Administration, Vice-President of Finance, Vice-President of Philanthropy, Vice-President of Community Service, Co-Vice-Presidents of Recruitment, Co-Vice-Presidents of Public Relations.

Section II The above named officers and chairmen will make up the Executive Board which shall oversee all functions of IFC along with the IFC Advisor.

The Executive Board will have, but not be limited to, the following powers:

The right to interpret and apply the Constitution.

The right to stay the execution of any motion that has been properly passed by IFC until the next meeting upon proof of good cause that this decision is in the best interest of the Greek system.

The option to remove officers from the Executive Board upon show of good cause and a majority vote of the Board, with the questionable party(s) not being allowed a vote, and approval by the Director of Greek Life.

ARTICLE VIII--ELECTIONS

Section I Elections shall be held during the month of November. The IFC may move up this date in the case of an emergency or by proof of good cause.

Section II Applications will be distributed three weeks prior to the election.

Section III Applications are due one week prior to elections.

Section IV Election of officers will be by a simple majority vote of the council, with each represented full member fraternity receiving voting privileges. If a majority vote cannot be reached the acting President of IFC will cast the deciding vote unless a clear conflict of interest exists. In that case, the Director of Greek Life will cast the deciding vote.

Section V IFC Executive Board Officers shall serve a term of one calendar year.

Section VI A vacancy in an office, except the President, shall be filled by a special election. In the case of the President stepping down or being removed, the acting Vice-President shall assume the office of President and all of its responsibilities. In this case a new Vice-President must be elected.

Section VII The President and either of the Co-Recruitment Chairman may not be affiliated with the same fraternity.

Section VIII In order for a fraternity to be eligible to vote they must be in good standing with the University and have a ZERO balance with IFC.

ARTICLE IX--VOTING

Section I In order for a vote to take place quorum must be present. A quorum shall consist of fifty percent plus one of the number of voting fraternities composing this council.

Section II Votes may be cast in person or by written proxy only at meetings. This privilege may be revoked pursuant to the provisions of this Constitution.

Section III Votes of abstention shall not be considered.

Section IV Meetings shall be governed by the principles in Robert's Rule of Order.

Section V The general body of IFC has the power to overrule executive action with a 3/4 vote of the Council.

Section VI All IFC Executive Board officers shall serve on the IFC but shall have no vote.

ARTICLE X--QUALIFICATIONS FOR OFFICERS

Section I All officers of IFC shall be active members in good standing with their respective fraternities. You must be an active collegiate member of your fraternity and not an alumnus.

Section II All officers must be enrolled full time at the University of Arkansas.

Section III The student must maintain a 2.50 cumulative GPA to run for office and maintain a 2.50 GPA while in office. If at any time the officer falls below this requirement a special election shall be held to replace that officer, with the special election exception provided in Article VIII, Section IV. The GPA of all officers shall be verified by the IFC Advisor.

Section IV IFC officers shall not be allowed to hold any of the following positions within their respective fraternities: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Social Chairman, Recruitment Chairman, or New Member-Educator. Upon any officer receiving such a position in his fraternity, he will be asked to step down according to the guidelines provided in Article VIII, Section IV. Any requests for an exception must be brought before the current IFC Executive Board.

- Oversee and develop the Greek Men's Leadership Institute.
- Be an outstanding example for rising leaders in the Greek community.
- Organize a brotherhood event for IFC executive members once a semester.
- Oversee IFC Academic Policies and Initiatives
- Hold roundtable discussions with each Chapter's academic chair
- Serve at least two office hours weekly.

Section XI IFC Representatives/Delegates

It shall be the duty of the IFC Representatives/Delegates to:

- Each fraternity is required to appoint an IFC delegate that will serve from the time the new IFC Executive Board is seated to the same time the following year.
- Have a working knowledge of the IFC Constitution.
- Keep the fraternity's roster and new member cards up-to-date.
- Attend all IFC meetings.
- Ensure that his fraternity submits all rosters and fulfills financial obligations.
- Present all IFC business to his chapter.
- Promote positive attributes of IFC during chapter meetings

Section XII IFC Philanthropy Involvement Policy

To provide a consistent platform for the Interfraternity Council to display its' philanthropic values to the Greek Community:

- If an IFC organization has a registered event benefiting a philanthropic organization, and has made it known to the Interfraternity Council that they would like widespread attendance from the Greek community, then the Interfraternity Council will help promote and actively participate in the event.
- Attendance is required from two-fifths (2/5) of the Executive Board.
- The Vice President of Philanthropy and the Vice President of Community Service are always required to attend.
- The Vice President of Public Relations is required to assist in the promotion of the event.
- All entry fees, tickets, and costs incurred by members of the executive council while attending these events will be covered by the Interfraternity Council.

ARTICLE XII--REMOVAL OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Section I Members of the IFC Executive Board may be removed upon proof of good cause by the Director of Greek Life and a majority vote of those Executive Officers not up for removal from office.

Section II The entire Executive Board may be removed upon a vote of No Confidence from the general body. This vote must consist of 2/3 of those fraternities with full membership. Upon removal of the entire Executive Board, new elections must immediately follow, while meeting election guidelines set forth in this Constitution.

Section III Executive officers must also be immediately removed if they fail to meet all obligations and requirements of officers.

Section IV Officers may also be removed based on the following guidelines:

Continuous gross or willful neglect of the duties of office.

Failure or refusal to disclose necessary information on matters of organization.

Unauthorized expenditures, signing unauthorized checks, or misuse of IFC funds.

Misrepresentation of the Council and/or its full member or associate member fraternities.

In the event of two (2) unexcused absences from either General Body or IFC Exec, said Executive member shall be voted on by the fraternities as to their continuation of their roll.

ARTICLE XIII--MEETINGS

Section I Meetings shall be held weekly with a time to be decided at the beginning of each school year by the Executive Council in coordination with the Greek Life Office.

Section II Special meetings may be called by the President at his discretion or at the request of one-fourth of the member fraternities.

ARTICLE XIV--REPRESENTATION

Section I All full member and associate member fraternities shall have one (1) delegate participating in IFC meetings in addition to the Chapter President.

Section II Each full member fraternity in attendance shall be allowed to cast up to two equally considered votes on its behalf in any voting situation, one by the President and one by the official IFC Delegate.

Section III Requirements to be an IFC delegate are as follows:

The student must be an active member of the chapter throughout the semester.

Must be in good standing with the University and his respective chapter.

Must be enrolled full time at the University of Arkansas.

Section IV The President of each fraternity is required to attend all meetings of IFC. Two absences are allowed per President per semester, the third resulting in a loss of voting rights for the aforementioned official for the remainder of the same semester. The President is allowed to send a proxy for meetings of IFC. Upon the second instance that a President sends a proxy, it is considered an absence, which will count towards the two total absences allowed. Under extenuating circumstances (i.e., classes held during time of IFC meetings) the IFC Executive Board may approve a permanent proxy for any President who is unable to attend IFC meetings, with the same absence policy applying.

Section V The IFC Delegate(s) of each fraternity shall be required to attend all meetings of IFC. Two absences are allowed per delegate per semester, the third resulting in a loss of voting rights for the aforementioned official for the remainder of the semester. The Delegate is allowed to send a proxy for meetings of IFC. Upon the second instance that a delegate sends a proxy, it is considered one absence, which will count towards the two total absences allowed.

Section VI Excessive absenteeism can result in social sanctions being placed on the fraternity in question, as determined by the Executive Board and Director of Greek Life.

ARTICLE XV--POWERS OF THE INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

Section I The IFC shall have the authority to administer its rulings on its full member and associate member fraternities provided that these rulings do not contradict university, city, county, state, or federal regulations, or the national or international policies of its full and associate member fraternities.

Section II The IFC shall have the power to represent the fraternities at the University of Arkansas who are full or associate members of its General Body, provided that such representations are fair and positive for these fraternities.

Section III The IFC shall have the power to exact sanctions upon persons and/or fraternities for infractions dealing with the IFC Constitution or any ruling passed by the Interfraternity Council.

ARTICLE XVI--FINANCE

Section I Dues of each IFC full and associate member fraternity shall be an assessment for each member. The assessment shall be seven dollars per active member and new member/pledge unless stipulated differently by IFC or Greek Life.

Section II Dues are to be paid at the beginning of each semester and assessed according to the active members and new members/pledges at the beginning of each semester.

Section III There shall be a fourteen-day grace period to allow payment in full. If payment is late the fraternity responsible shall be penalized as follows:

First Offense: A 10% late fee will be assessed, imposed on the next semester's due.

Second Offense: Loss of good standing and the outstanding balance shall be subject to further compound late fees.

Third Offense: Failure to pay before formal recruitment: Disqualified from participating in formal recruitment.

Section IV In the case of extenuating circumstances, the Vice-President of Finance is available for reconsideration of aforementioned penalties if consulted in advance.

Section V If a full member or an associate member remits payment within seven days of the billing date, it shall be credited with a 5% early return reward.

Article XVII--Academics

Section I All chapters will be required to maintain at chapter GPA of 2.70 or higher each semester.

Section II If the chapter falls below the above stated GPA requirement then the following sanctions shall follow:

- First Semester: Academic Warning: The chapter will be in good standing and maintain all rights of council membership. The chapter will work with the Greek Life Office to partner with Student Support Services to raise the chapter GPA above the IFC minimum.
- Second Semester: Academic Probation: The chapter will be in good standing and maintain all rights of council membership, but must adopt the University of Arkansas IFC Academic Guidelines and show its implementation.
- Third Semester: Academic Sanction: Chapter representatives will meet with the IFC Executive Board and its advisors, to determine appropriate sanctions. This meeting must take place no later than the 10th class day of this semester. Final sanctions must be mutually agreed upon by all parties and cannot be appealed. Sanction will be announced at the following general body meetings. Sanctions could include but are not limited to: loss of active status, loss of social functions, mandatory academic programming, or study hall requirements.

ARTICLE XVIII--PLEDGING, REPLEDGING AND DEPLEDGING

Section I To be eligible for pledging a man must be enrolled full time at the University of Arkansas and meet all other requirements established by the Greek Life Office and Greek Standards.

Section II At the time of pledging a fraternity, the student wishing to pledge shall be required to sign a bid/grade release card indicating that he has become a new member and the date of new member term. The President or Recruitment Chairman of the respective fraternity shall be required to co-sign the bid card to indicate its validity and return it to the Greek Life Office by the established deadline.

Section III When a fraternity or a new member therein wishes to terminate that relationship the fraternity must file a de-pledge card with the Greek Affairs Office within one week after de-pledging.

Section IV A new member that breaks relations with any respective fraternity is eligible to pledge another fraternity, the following semester, only after having completed 12 credit hours with at least a 2.50 GPA during the semester of depledging. However, he may repledge the same fraternity if both parties can reach an agreement regardless of the recruitment cut-off date. In all cases he, must discharge all financial obligations to any fraternity that he has previously pledged before he shall be allowed to pledge in any other fraternity.

Section V A recruit whose bid/grade release card is not on file with the Greek Life Office is forbidden to participate in new member/pledge or member activity of the fraternity, or otherwise be considered affiliated with that fraternity (deferred or “ghost” pledging).

ARTICLE XIX--HAZING

Section I IFC adopts the Fraternity Executives Association Statement of Position on Hazing and Pre-Initiation Activities and the Arkansas Anti-Hazing Legislation.

Section II Any fraternity that is accused of hazing, in any form, shall immediately be placed on probationary status with IFC until the accusation is cleared up by a formal written statement from both parties. If the accusation is found to be true, by any type of judicial body, on or off the University, that fraternity shall be temporarily removed from IFC and shall lose all IFC related privileges for no less than one semester, and not be allowed to participate in formal rush for at least one year.

ARTICLE XX--RECRUITMENT

Section I All rules and regulations pertaining to summer and fall formal recruitment will be voted upon in the early spring prior to the end of the academic year.

Section II Amendments to the recruitment rules require a 2/3 vote of the Council.

ARTICLE XXI--LITTLE SISTERS

Section I Fraternities shall no longer be allowed to recruit or have Little Sisters.

ARTICLE XXII--EXPANSION

Section I IFC reserves the privileges of contacting national fraternities for colonization at the University of Arkansas.

Section II The national fraternity wishing to colonize must follow the University of Arkansas' Regulations for the Establishment and Operation of National Fraternity and Sorority groups.

Section III Any fraternity wishing to colonize at the University of Arkansas must receive a majority vote of approval from the general body of IFC. If that vote is not achieved and that fraternity colonizes or registers as a student organization it will not be admitted into IFC until it has been chartered from its national organization.

ARTICLE XXIII Fraternal Ethics

Section I In order to uphold founding principles of each of the chapters that make up the University of Arkansas Interfraternity Council, be it resolved that use of language that is degrading to women or other minority groups during an IFC sponsored event be deemed unsatisfactory and punishable by the Office of Greek Life.

Section II No fraternity shall at any time, publicly use degrading language referring to women, such as; individual sororities, individual sorority members, or non-Greek women during any recruitment event. This includes but is not limited to; speeches and any recruitment materials used such as brochures, video, pictures, or clothing, i.e. T-Shirts.

Section III Possible punishments include, but are not limited to:

Reduction of number of parties during Formal Rush.

Reduction of number of eligible social events.

Sponsorship of education workshop/speaker.

Section IV A minimum of one educational program is to be held by each participating IFC chapter per semester.

Section V. Possession and use of alcoholic beverages in public areas of university facilities and at official university student functions held on campus must follow state and federal laws and university policies at all times.

Section VI. The chapter/organization, members and guests must comply with all federal, state, provincial and local laws. No person under the legal drinking age may possess, consume, provide or be provided alcoholic beverages.

Section VII. The chapter/organization, members and guests must follow the federal law regarding illegal drugs and controlled substances. No person may possess, use, provide, distribute, sell, and/or manufacture illegal drugs or other controlled substances while on chapter/organizational premises or at any activity or event sponsored or endorsed by the chapter/organization.

Section VIII. For all off campus functions alcoholic beverages must either be:

a. Provided and sold on a per-drink basis by a licensed and insured third-party vendor (e.g., restaurant, bar, caterer, etc.); or

b. Brought by individual members and guests through a bring your own beverage (“BYOB”) system. The presence of alcohol products above 15% alcohol by volume (“ABV”) is prohibited on any chapter/organization premises or at any event, except when served by a licensed and insured third-party vendor.

Section IX. Common sources of alcohol, including bulk quantities, which are not being served by a licensed and insured third party vendor, are prohibited (i.e., amounts of alcohol greater than what a reasonable person should consume over the duration of an event).

Section X. Alcoholic beverages must not be purchased with chapter/organizational funds or funds pooled by members or guests (e.g., admission fees, cover fees, collecting funds through digital apps, etc.).

Section XI. A chapter/organization must not co-host or co-sponsor, or in any way participate in, an activity or event with another group or entity that purchases or provides alcohol.

Section XII. A chapter/organization must not co-host or co-sponsor an event with a bar, event promoter, or alcohol distributor; however, a chapter/organization may rent a bar, restaurant, or other licensed and insured third-party vendor to host a chapter/organization event.

Section XIII. Attendance by non-members at any event where alcohol is present must be by invitation only, and the chapter/organization must utilize a guest list system. Attendance at events with alcohol is limited to a 3:1 maximum guest-to-member ratio, and must not exceed local fire or building code capacity of the chapter/organizational premises or host venue.

Section XIV. Any event or activity related to the new member joining process (e.g., recruitment, intake, rush, etc.) must be substance free. No alcohol or drugs may be present if the event or activity is related to new member activities, meetings, or initiation into an organization, including but not limited to “bid night,” “big/little” events or activities, “family” events or activities, and any ritual or ceremony.

Section XV. The chapter/organization, members or guests must not permit, encourage, coerce, glorify or participate in any activities involving the rapid consumption of alcohol, such as drinking games.

ARTICLE XXIV--AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION

Section I This Constitution may be amended by 2/3 vote of the general body of IFC, provided that the amendment has been submitted in writing during a meeting at least two weeks prior to voting.
